

Alice van der Schee

Alice van der Schee has been a lawyer since 1990 and a partner with Van Benthem & Keulen since 2001 in the Restructuring & Insolvency practice group, which Alice leads. Alice is often appointed as administrator in moratoriums of payments and as insolvency practitioner in bankruptcies. She was appointed in some high-profile bankruptcies, such as TCN Urop SE and Koops Furness N.V.

What distinguishes Alice as a lawyer is that she is bilingual and is also Rechtsanwältin in Germany. This enables her to bridge the gap between the German and Dutch legal situations for German clients. At the same time, she can explain the difference between both legal systems to Dutch entrepreneurs who are active in Germany and offer appropriate solutions based on her knowledge of German culture.
