

Patricia Schaafsma

Patricia Schaafsma has been a lawyer with Van Benthem & Keulen's Corporate / M&A practice group since July 2019. Patricia's expertise lies in company law and mergers and acquisitions.

Patricia started her career at Stibbe in Amsterdam and New York with a specialisation in M&A. Patricia also worked for many years at ING, for some of that time as in-house counsel. She has also worked as a self-employed professional and therefore knows what moves entrepreneurs and what issues they come up against.

What distinguishes Patricia as a lawyer is her experience in the business sector and as entrepreneur, which allows her to easily identify with the situations clients find themselves in so that she can give quick, adequate and personal advice.
