

Linde van Dieren-Muller

Linde van Dieren-Muller has been working as a lawyer at Van Benthem & Keulen in the Restructuring & Insolvency practice group since 2011. Linde is regularly appointed as administrator in moratoriums and as trustee and receiver in bankruptcies.

In addition, she advises and assists entrepreneurs and their creditors in the context of composition procedures under the Dutch Court Approval of a Private Composition (Prevention of Insolvency) Act ("WHOA").

Furthermore, Linde specialises in assisting other trustees and receivers in conducting and coordinating extensive cause and lawfulness investigations in bankruptcies. She also handles liability proceedings (which can be complex) against directors, supervisory directors and auditors, in which she assists both trustees/receivers and their counterparties. These include any disciplinary proceedings that may precede a liability claim.
