

Anne Kusters

Anne Kusters has been working as a lawyer at van Benthem & Keulen in the Procurement Law and Administrative Law practice groups since January 2012.

What distinguishes Anne as a lawyer is that she advises her clients from an open perspective on the case and has the will to learn from her clients about matters that are important to them personally or their organisation. She strives to apply her legal knowledge as practically as possible to the business of her clients, taking their internal organisation into account.

Anne likes to contribute to the professional development of her relations and regularly gives courses with her colleagues in the fields of procurement law and administrative law. Anne also speaks at iura actua in the Procurement Law module, and shares her knowledge through, for example, Legal Updates.
