

Alrik Bijkerk

Alrik Bijkerk has worked as a lawyer in the Administrative Law and Environmental Law practice groups since 2017 and as an associate partner at Van Benthem & Keulen since July 2023.

Alrik has been practising law since 2009. He specialises in area development and works at the intersection of public/private law. Alrik advises and assists public authorities, market parties on expropriation, the Municipalities (Preferential Rights) Act, public-private partnerships, land exploitation and contracts with and by the government. He also litigates regularly in these areas.

As a specialised expropriation lawyer, Alrik has extensive experience in complex expropriation procedures, both for governments and landowners.
